- Survey monkey will be used for voting for president-elect

Current Business:

1. Electronic voting for President-elect
 - Linda Connolly will set up
 - Christine will send candidate statements
 - We'll have to figure out voting deadlines

2. Annual meeting in Reno
 - Meeting will be Jan 29-31: Wed, Thurs and Friday.
 - Most folks will need to arrive Tues evening
 - Some chapter board members may not be able to attend conference without support
 - Last year we did support some board members to attend
 - ET: motioned to cover board members who need assistance to attend the annual meeting up to $500 each
 - Motion passed
 - Discussed whether we should fund students and new professionals
 - New professionals will be defined as up to 3 years out of university
 - Up to $500 could be allocated for each student. Receipts and chapter membership required.
 - Chapter would fund up to 5 individuals on a first come first serve basis.
 - ET: motioned to fund students and new professionals using aforementioned guidelines.
 - Motion passed

3. Donations for BNLL workshop
 - The chapter made ~$8000 from the workshop
 - Discussion of allocation of money:
 - o $2000 donation to Working Dogs for Conservation
 - o $2000 to CALM
 - o $2000 to CDFW to do something beneficial for Buttonwillow Ecological Reserve. Either the money will go toward buying a wood sign that can be displayed on the Reserve or the money will be used to buy fencing supplies. ET will look into the wood sign and determine cost.
 - ET: motioned to use the revenue from the workshop in the aforementioned allocation
 - Motion passed

4. Professional Development
 - Botany workshop
 - o Lori Bono is taking the lead
 - o Ellen Cypher is willing to be a speaker and will provide content, etc.
 - o Reagen O'Leary also could provide content
 - o Vernal pool plants will probably not be included
 - o Thinking more grassland and upland shrub community focus
 - o Veg Mapping – Jennifer Buck Diaz from CNPS might be good
 - o Jeff Davis and Erin Tennant will provide help
 - o Linda Connolly will continue to do registration logistics for the chapter

- Lokern area for a field site
- Thinking March-ish
- Urban Ecology Symposium
 - Erin is willing to take on some of the work, with Jeff providing some assistance
 - Maybe Fall 2014
- Fun Tracking workshop for chapter members
 - Jim Lowery would teach the workshop
 - CVHJ still wants to organize

5. 2014 Natural Communities Conference

- Will be March 27 at CSUB
- Larry, Brian, and Dave will still take care of the schedule

Yahoo listserv and Facebook page

- We do have a Facebook page
